Stewardship Second

Our gifts are part of God's answer to those who cry out in distress.

Wider Church News and Events

June is also Indigenous Peoples Month, and so on the Sunday before the National Indigenous Peoples Day (June 21), United Churches are invited to take the opportunity to celebrate First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples' values, customs, languages, and culture. Indigenous Day of Prayer | The United Church of Canada. We remember the blessings offered to the world through the wisdom and care of First Nations peoples and commit ourselves anew to the Calls to the Church pathways for the whole church to continue to walk in the Spirit of Christ toward justice, healing, and reconciliation. In Prairie to Pine Regional Council, we celebrate the eighteen Indigenous Communities of Faith within our geographical area, known as Keewatin Circle and seek ways to practically support their ministries and Ministers through offerings to the Mission and Service fund.
